

PKSG 26th Annual Workshop

10 June 2016, University of Greenwich, Room QA080

09.30 - 10.00 Opening and report on PKSG: Gary Dymski, PKSG

10.00 - 12.00 Panel 1

Antoine Godin, Kingston: Interacting prudential and monetary policies: Financial stability from the bottom up

Ewa Karwowski, Kingston: Small and big business in South Africa: Understanding the importance of firm heterogeneity for financialisation theories

Annina Kaltenbrunner, Leeds: Currency internationalization and currency hierarchy: The importance of being an international funding currency

12.00 - 13.30 Lunch Break

13.30 - 15.30 Panel 2

Alberto Botta, Greenwich: The theoretical weaknesses of the expansionary austerity doctrine: A post-Keynesian perspective on short-run and long-run consequences of fiscal consolidation

Mark Hayes, Durham: Trades unions, real wages and full employment

Simon Deakin, Cambridge: The impact of labour laws on employment, productivity and inequality: Evidence from a new leximetric dataset

15.30 - 16.00 Coffee Break

16.00 - 18.00 Panel 3

Ken Coutts and Graham Gudgin, Cambridge: Not the OBR: A macroeconomic policy model of the UK economy with insights from Godley and Lavoie

Giovanni Cozzi, Greenwich: Stimulating investment for sustainable growth in Europe

Ann Pettifor, PRIME Economics: Would a Corbyn-led Labour government subordinate finance to the role of servant, not master?

19.00 Dinner

Please join us for dinner. We regret that this will be at your own expense.

Papers will be made available at the PKSG webpage (<http://www.postkeynesian.net/>) one week prior to the workshop.

The conference is free of charge. PKSG will provide coffee from 9.15 and in the afternoon break.

Please register by sending an email to Maria Nikolaidi (M.Nikolaidi@greenwich.ac.uk) ideally indicating if you will join us for dinner.

The PKSG is organising its 8th Annual PhD Student Conference on 9 June 2016, 9am-7pm. For more info see here: http://www.gre.ac.uk/data/assets/pdf_file/0018/1157211/PhD-Student-Conference-pksg.pdf.

Address and travel directions

University of Greenwich, Queen Anne Building Room QA080
Park Row, Greenwich, London SE10 9LS

The closest DLR station is Cutty Sark, the closest train stations are either Greenwich or Maze Hill.

For more info on travel to University of Greenwich, see here: <http://www2.gre.ac.uk/about/travel/greenwich>