

30th PKES Annual Workshop

28 May 2020, SOAS University of London

10.00 - 12.00 Panel 1

Karsten Köhler, King's College: Finance-driven business cycles in emerging markets: the role of exchange rates

Ben Cormier and Natalya Naqvi, London School of Economics: The rise of index investment and its impact on capital flows to and policy autonomy in emerging markets performance

Carolyn Sissoko, University of the West of England: The collateral supply effect on monetary policy

13.00 - 13.30 PKES Annual Report: Engelbert Stockhammer

13.30 - 15.30 Panel 2

TBC, In memory of Mark Hayes

Hulya Dagdeviren, University of Hertfordshire: TBC

Ingrid H. Kvangraven, University of York: Forms of subordination in 21st century Africa: where does financialization fit in?, with Kai Koddenbrock and Ndongo Samba Sylla

16.00 - 18.00 Panel 3

Elisa Van Waeyenberge, SOAS University of London: TBC

Sara Stevano, SOAS University of London: Households and macroeconomic policy: an unnatural coupling?

Jordan Melmies, Université de Lille: TBC

Workshop organising committee: Yannis Dafermos, Maria Nikolaidi, Engelbert Stockhammer
The event is organised by PKES and supported by SOAS University of London.
If you have any questions, please contact Maria Nikolaidi (email: M.Nikolaidi@greenwich.ac.uk).